

SEPTEMBER 19-21 2019 VICTIM OFFENDER DIALOGUE (VOD) TRAINING

- The Restorative Justice Mediation Program (RJMP) offers crime victims and juvenile offenders an effective alternative to the traditional criminal justice system.
- We provide offenders referred by Probation, the Public Defender's office or the District Attorney's office a chance to take responsibility for their actions and make amends directly with the person they have harmed. Our mediation program gives victims a voice, and can provide for both financial and emotional restitution. The Victim Offender Dialogue (VOD) begins the healing process for the victim, the offender, and the community.
- This training will not only earn you a certification as a VOD facilitator, but will help you build a conflict resolution toolbox to enhance your own professional and personal communication skills.
- What it takes to become a volunteer facilitator:
  - Completion of an RJMP certification process
  - Commitment of one year of service
  - Pass background check
